Educate Station now available through Library website for free

Allen Park Library has acquired a new resource, Educate Station, which features full curriculum learning plans for grades Pre-K through fifth grade. This exciting new tool offers print and digital materials in both weekly and monthly formats as well as a "My Classroom" feature which allows patrons to save items in an online organizer. The online content is created by a team of educators from across the United States and provides worksheets in multiple subjects such as Math, Science and Social Studies. This content can be easily accessed by all patrons by visiting the Parent/Teacher tab on the Library's website today!

Exciting fall program lineup approaches

Join us at the Library this fall as we see the return of beloved programming for all age groups. For children, Family Fun Storytime and Bingo will resume the second and fourth Saturdays respectively at 10:30 a.m. Under 5 Storytime welcomes children ages five and under and their caregivers on Wednesday mornings at 10:30 a.m. beginning September 11.

For tweens and teens, our role-playing games group, Roll Reversals, resumes in September on the second and fourth Mondays at 6:00 p.m. Tween and Teen Night will return one Monday per month beginning in October and welcomes those ages 10-18 to join in a night of crafting and book discussion.

Adults can look forward to visiting local authors, technology basics classes and Gentle Yoga. The Between the Covers and Variety adult book groups will remain on their respective first and third Tuesdays of each month. Needles, Hooks and Books continues each Thursday at 6:00 p.m. for those 18 and up. For updates and information on these programs, call or visit the Library's website.
