Colorful Summer Reading days at the Allen Park Library

The Library's Summer Reading Program came to a close on Saturday, July 26 with our annual finale carnival for all ages. Attendees were welcome to play games, visit our art gallery and meet our special guests, the Friends of the Rouge and Steve the Balloon Guy! Prize baskets were also awarded at the carnival. With a combined total of 4,404 hours read, each age group contributed with adults having read the most by far! Participants who completed the program by returning four reading logs are awarded a completion certificate and free book, available at the Circulation Desk through August. A very special thank you to our sponsors, the Allen Park Culver's and Zap Zone, and to all who made this summer reading so vibrant!

August Closure

The Allen Park Library will be closed from Friday, August 22 through Monday, September 1 in order to complete some very exciting renovations! During this closure, regular Library services, including Curbside Pick-Up and deliveries will be unavailable. Patrons can look forward to the installation of four new private study rooms, one private group study room, and a larger conference room, all to be available for reservation in the early fall.
