Exciting reading challenge to debut for adults in the New Year

The Allen Park Public Library will be offering adults ages 18 and up a new challenge in 2025 with "100 Books in a Year"! This program offers a simple goal to participants: read 100 books in a calendar year, from January to December. Participating adults can log each book read, complete milestones and earn free books and entries into the grand prize drawing for a new Amazon Kindle Fire. The program ends each year on December 31 but sign-up will be available anytime throughout the calendar year. Registration opens January 2, the first day the Library is open in 2025, at the Circulation Desk. Call or visit the Library for more information!
