Hot Reads for Cold Nights has returned with a new theme

Our annual winter reading challenge returns as "Once Upon a Crime", a new mystery theme for 2025! From now through March 28, patrons ages 18 and up can participate by picking up reading logs at the Circulation Desk and marking time read in 30-minute increments. Each returned reading log will earn participants an instant prize plus chances to win bigger prizes including gift cards and prize baskets! This year's challenge also features a themed scavenger hunt in the adult area all throughout the program. Scavenger hunt sheets are included with the reading logs and once complete can be returned as an extra grand prize drawing entry. Solve the mystery of how many hours you can read this winter at the Library!
